Who We Are:

We are a group of parents who have children that access services through one or more of the child-serving systems (Juvenile Probation, Drug & Alcohol, Mental Health, Children & Youth, Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities)

What We Do:

We work together to build collaboration between families and professionals to achieve positive outcomes.

How We Do This:

Support Each Other!

Share our stories and experiences.

Participate in trainings and outreach events.

Use our voice to make a difference!
